

Eastglen High School

WEEK AT A GLANCE

December 19 – December 23

| | |
|---|--|
| Eastglen Vision Statement | Eastglen Vision Statement Our Vision at Eastglen High School is that our students and staff will develop the knowledge, skills and attitude to achieve success. |
| Be A Blue Devil Days | Be A Blue Devil Days As part of our process to support grade 9 students in preparing for their transition to high school, we are continuing to host our Be A Blue Devil Days this week. Last week students from Highlands were at Eastglen, and this week we have the students from John D. Bracco and Lawton Junior High Schools visiting. We are excited about this opportunity to support our future Blue Devils! |
| Campus EPSB Parent Meeting | Campus EPSB Parent Meeting For this families and students participating in the Campus EPSB Project next semester for the Advanced Performing Arts, we are having our parent meeting starting at 6:00 PM. This is a mandatory meeting and should not take more than 30 minutes. We look forward to seeing you there! |
| Interim Reports - Friday | Interim Reports - Friday Just a reminder to upload your most recent Interim Reports this Friday before you leave. Thanks! |
| January Exam Schedule | January Exam Schedule Although it is early, I just wanted to remind parents that our January exam schedule is placed on our Eastglen School Calendar. Individual exam reminders for students will be sent out via SchoolZone. If you have any questions regarding the January Exam Schedule, please feel free to contact Ms. Matthews, our schedule coordinator. Semester 2 officially starts on Wednesday, February 1st. |
| Happy Holidays and Best Wishes in 2017 | Happy Holidays and Best Wishes in 2017 On behalf of the staff at Eastglen, I would like to take this time to wish everyone a relaxing and rewarding holiday season. All the best to you and yours in 2017! Classes resume for students on Monday, January 9th. |