

Eastglen High School

WEEK AT A GLANCE

December 4 – December 8

“At the end of the day, the most overwhelming key to a child’s success is the positive involvement of parents.”

Eastglen’s Vision Statement	Eastglen’s Vision Statement Our Vision at Eastglen High School is that our students and staff will develop the knowledge, skills and attitude to achieve success.
National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women	National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women On December 6th from 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM, Eastglen is pleased to be hosting an event to commemorate the National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women. And we are going to commemorate the day by honoring the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. The first half of the event would have different people speaking on the issues facing Indigenous Women and Girls, and would be a more somber presentation. The second half of the event would be a celebration of Indigenous women from around Edmonton, with dancing and different performances. It would be like a showcase of the talented Indigenous Women and Girls in the city. We will also have an art display called the Red Dress Project which is a series of 11 large photos and 5-6 red dresses. Any parents who are interested are welcome to attend this event.
Dance Showcase	Dance Showcase We are excited to be having our semester one Dance Showcase this week. The performances begin on Thursday, December 7th and end on Friday, December 8th. Both performances begin at 7:00 PM. All families are encouraged to come out and support this great event!
Clothing Drive	Clothing Drive (Extended) Our All In For Youth team has arranged to do a clothing drive for our students. The event has been extended for this week as well. Students and families are welcome to contact either Kolby (Success Coach) or Caitlin (Mental Health Therapist) regarding accessing the clothing. The room will be open before and after school, as well as during lunch hours for this week. Should you be interested in coming to the school outside of these times, please set an appointment with Kolby or Caitlyn.
First Nations, Metis and Inuit - 1st Annual Winter Feast at Eastglen	First Nations, Metis and Inuit - 1st Annual Winter Feast at Eastglen This is just a notice to parents that Eastglen is pleased to be hosting its first annual Winter Feast on Wednesday, December 13th from 11:30 am until about 12:30 pm. This Feast in honour of our First Nations, Metis and Inuit students and families, and we welcome all families to come and participate in this event!
