

Eastglen High School

WEEK AT A GLANCE

May 7 – May 11

“At the end of the day, the most overwhelming key to a child’s success is the positive involvement of parents.”

Eastglen’s Vision Statement	Eastglen’s Vision Statement Our Vision at Eastglen High School is that our students and staff will develop the knowledge, skills and attitude to achieve success.
Eastglen Athletics	Eastglen Athletics We are at that time of the year when we are highlighting our outdoor athletics. Men’s and Women’s Soccer is underway. Although it is a short season, it is one full of excitement! Track and Field is also happening, with several meets coming up in preparation for the Cities. Blue Devils’ Football camps are starting this month as well. Busy times indeed! Go Blue Devils!!
First Nations, Metis and Inuit Honouring Celebration	First Nations, Metis and Inuit Honouring Celebration On this Friday, May 11 th , we are pleased to be participating in Edmonton Public Schools’ Honouring Celebration. This celebration is to recognize our grade 12 indigenous students who are completing high school. The event begins at 6:00 pm at the Edmonton Inn on Kingsway Avenue. For more information, please contact either Chancy Black Water or Matthew Kleywegt at our school.
Parent Feedback – Student Conduct and Behaviour Policy	Parent Feedback – Student Conduct and Behaviour Policy In our District’s efforts to continually refine and improve our work, we have begun the development of a new Student Conduct and Behaviour Policy. It does not mean that we are changing our standards or expectations. Rather, it reflects additional processes to support students in achieving success. As schools we will be developing school level policies that will reflect our District’s Policy and Regulations. As part of this process I am inviting parents to share your thoughts on elements that you feel we should be including in our policies. Feel free to email me your thoughts at: Darren.Fox@epsb.ca .
Eastglen’s Musical Theatre Presents: 9 To 5	Eastglen’s Musical Theatre Presents: 9 To 5 What an exciting time for our students in our Musical Theatre Program. As you may know, they have been practicing hundreds of hours, including many weekends! Their performance this year is the musical, 9 To 5, based on the movie from a long time ago. We still have two performances this week. The show times are: Thursday, May 10 th at 7:00 PM Friday, May 11 th at 7:00 PM
