

Eastglen High School

WEEK AT A GLANCE

November 14 – November 17

“At the end of the day, the most overwhelming key to a child’s success is the positive involvement of parents.”

Eastglen’s Vision Statement

Eastglen’s Vision Statement

Our Vision at Eastglen High School is that our students and staff will develop the knowledge, skills and attitude to achieve success.

Bullying Awareness Week

Bullying Awareness Week

This week is Bullying Awareness Week. This year’s provincial theme is Stand Up and Promote Healthy Relationships. This year’s theme encourages everyone to work together to promote bullying prevention and to encourage healthy relationships.

How Can You Get Involved?

Albertans are encouraged to join online conversations throughout the week using #StandUpAB. Daily themes include:

- Tuesday, November 14 – How do you stand up for healthy relationships?
- Wednesday, November 15 – Share ideas about how to stand up against bullying/prevent bullying.
- Thursday, November 16 – Where do you go for information and help?
- Friday, November 17 – What initiatives help to promote healthy relationships in your communities and schools?

More information is available through the following links:

Bullying helpline and resources

Bullying prevention in schools

Bullying prevention in the workplace

Albertans’ Perceptions of Family Violence and Bullying Survey

New EPSB School Trustee

New EPSB School Trustee

It is with great pleasure to introduce our newly elected trustee for our ward, Trustee Trisha Estabrooks. Trustee Estabrooks is a Highland’s resident and parent of school-aged children. She is excited to be serving our ward and learning about the great things happening at Eastglen.

Results Review

Results Review

This Friday we are pleased to be hosting the annual Results Review for Eastglen, Highlands and Virginia Park Schools. Our Assistant Superintendent, Ron MacNeil, and our Trustee, Trisha Estabrooks, will be working with us to discuss the highlights of our work and plans for continuing improving our schools.