

Eastglen High School

WEEK AT A GLANCE

November 6 – November 8

“At the end of the day, the most overwhelming key to a child’s success is the positive involvement of parents.”

Eastglen’s Vision Statement

Eastglen’s Vision Statement

Our Vision at Eastglen High School is that our students and staff will develop the knowledge, skills and attitude to achieve success.

Basketball Try-Outs

Basketball Try-Outs

Just a quick note to families that basketball season is officially underway. Try-outs for all junior and senior teams are next Monday and Tuesday (November 6th and 7th). The try-outs are being held after school on both days.

Daylight Savings Time Ends – Change Your Clocks on November 4!

Daylight Savings Time Ends – Change Your Clocks on November 4!

This is just a reminder that this Saturday night/Sunday morning we turn our clocks back as we switch from daylight savings. This means we gain an hour of extra sleep! Woohoo!!

Remembrance Day Ceremony

Remembrance Day Ceremony

This is just to let you know that our Remembrance Day Ceremony will be held on Wednesday, November 8th beginning at 10:30 am. All families are invited to attend.

November Break

November Break

This is just a reminder to parents that from Thursday, November 9th through to Monday, November 13th, inclusive, all of Edmonton Public Schools will be having November break. This means that there are no classes happening for that duration.

Classes do resume on Tuesday, November 14th. Thanks!

Partners With The Principal

Partners With The Principal

I greatly value your role as partners in your child’s education. To that end, throughout the year I will ask you for your feedback and thoughts.

As we have finished our first two months of school, I am curious to hear back from you about your thoughts regarding how your child’s first half of semester one has gone.

Please feel free to send me an email at: Darren.Fox@epsb.ca. Thanks!
