

Eastglen High School

WEEK AT A GLANCE

October 11 – October 14

“At the end of the day, the most overwhelming key to a child’s success is the positive involvement of parents.”

Eastglen’s Vision Statement

Eastglen’s Vision Statement

Our Vision at Eastglen High School is that our students and staff will develop the knowledge, skills and attitude to achieve success.

Page Turners: School-wide Reading Challenge

Page Turners: School-wide Reading Challenge

The kickoff for our third annual Page Turners: School-wide Reading Challenge started last Friday. Students, staff and parents are encouraged to participate in this excellent activity to promote reading at the high school level. Links to this challenge will be posted to SchoolZone. Here are the books in this year’s challenge:

- Accident Season
- Compulsion
- Dangerous Lies
- The Dead House
- Everything Everything
- Need
- Passenger
- Places No One Knows
- The Rest of Us Just Live Here
- Saving June
- The Scorpion Rules
- Shallow Graves
- These Shallow Graves
- What We Left Behind
- Worlds of Ink and Shadow

We encourage all students and families to participate in this rewarding event! For more information, please contact Leann Thompson in the library.

Interim Report #2

Interim Report #2

This Friday we are releasing our second Interim Report. This interim report will contain both formative assessment information as well as summative assessment information. To that end, students’ marks will be calculated as an overall mark in the course. To include families in this process, Parent-Teacher Interviews will occur on Thursday, October 20th.