

Eastglen High School

WEEK AT A GLANCE

September 24 –28th

“At the end of the day, the most overwhelming key to a child’s success is the positive involvement of parents.”

Eastglen’s Vision Statement	Eastglen’s Vision Statement Our Vision at Eastglen High School is that our students and staff will develop the knowledge, skills and attitude to achieve success.
Eastglen Parent Association Meeting -September 25	Eastglen Parent Association Meeting –September 25th Our first Eastglen Parent Association Meeting is this Tuesday, September 25 th starting at 6:30 pm. We invite all parents to come out to our meeting. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the school.
Parent Feedback -Student’s Rights and Responsibility Document	Parent Feedback - Student’s Rights and Responsibility Document Edmonton Public Schools has updated its policy surrounding student’s rights and responsibilities.As we are in the process of finalizing this new document, we are interested in receiving feedback from parents. To that end, I have two questions I would like to gather your perspective: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Are there any specific things you believe should be included in our Student’s Rights and Responsibility document?2. In relation to a school dress code, is there anything specific that you believe should be included or addressed? I can be reached at: darren.fox@epsb.ca. Thank you for taking the time to send me your responses. I look forward to reading them!
E.A.S.T. Block	E.A.S.T. Block Our daily Eastglen Academic Support Time (E.A.S.T.) block begins this week. This is our 5 th year of having this instructional time to support the learning needs of our students. All of our teachers provide learning opportunities for our students. It can be remediation, re-teaching, extension or enrichment. Most often students select the classes they need assistance in, but sometimes the teachers will ask the students to come for specific assistance. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask.
Orange Shirt Day	Orange Shirt Day This Friday we are inviting all staff and students to participate in Orange Shirt day. This event is meant to support our students who are indigenous and to further reaffirm our commitment to creating an inclusive and thriving environment.
